

Founding Sources for Educators

Purnama Sari is committed to promote the magic and beauty of Balinese dance, theatre, and shadow puppetry. They assist presenters to obtain financial assistance for their engagements. The following are current funding sources for Purnama Sari's performances, arts integrated lessons, residencies, workshops, and lectures.

Florida State Touring Roster "Arts on Tour" (for educators in Florida)

Purnama Sari is acknowledged by the state of Florida for their high quality performance and professionalism and is featured in the 2014-2016 Florida State Touring Roster. Any non profit Florida organizations outside Sarasota county (Purnama Sari's home base) including arts centers, public schools, libraries, and museums are eligible for the grants that support up to two third of an artist fee. Purnama Sari assists presenters throughout the application process. For more information, visit <http://www.florida-arts.org/roster> or send inquiry to info@purnamasaribali.com.

EdexploreSRQ (for educators at Sarasota county public school in Florida)

EdExploreSRQ introduces Sarasota K-12 public schools to arts integrated residencies, field trips, and school shows (Explorations), offered by local teaching artists and community arts, cultural, historical, and science field-based organizations. All the Explorations have been reviewed and approved by the School District's curriculum specialists in science, arts, and history. The Explorations enrich the school curriculum and align with the Florida state standards. Full fee support is available to Sarasota K-12 public schools through Community Foundation. For more information, visit <http://www.edexploresrq.com> or send inquiry to info@purnamasaribali.com.

Education Foundation of Sarasota County "Edge of Excellence Classroom Grants" (for educators at Sarasota county public schools in Florida)

Edge of Excellence Classroom Grants provide funding for teachers' innovative learning projects that positively impact student success in the classroom and are not supported through normal school operating budgets. Teachers, aides, school personnel, and instructors, are eligible to apply for up to $1,000 for projects that impact student achievement, life and career skills development, and innovative teaching. For more information, visit <http://www.sarasotacountyschools.net/educationfoundation/default.aspx?id=15060> or send inquiry to info@purnamasaribali.com.

VSA Florida (for ESE educators in Florida)

VSA Florida (VSAFL) is a state chapter of VSA, an affiliate of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Throughout the 67 counties in Florida, VSAFL offers arts programs for children and adults with disabilities, as well ESE school residencies with financial support. For more information, visit; <http://www.vsafl.org> or send inquiry to info@purnamasaribali.com.

United Arts Council of Raleigh and Wake County "Artists in the Schools (AIS)" (for educators at Wake county schools in North Carolina)

The AIS Program has placed professional artists in public, private, and charter schools in Wake County in North Carolina. These artists and arts organizations work as creative educational resources with faculty, students, and cultural arts representatives to implement curriculum-based arts in education programs. Qualified schools are eligible to apply for up to 50% of artist fee or $325 (whichever is less) for one or more performance. For more information, visit; <http://www.unitedarts.org/artsed/artistsintheschools/index.shtml> or send inquiry to info@purnamasaribali.com