

Professional Development

Surapsari, the director of Purnama Sari, offers lectures and classes on Balinese performing arts and arts Integration to early learning and K-12 school educators. In addition to be professional performing and teaching artist, her international engagement as counselor, public speaker, and published writer provides her with credentials in leading professional development for groups of any size. Surapsari's professional development seminars have two pillars; Multicultural education and Multidisciplinary arts education. She holds a Master's degree in Intercultural Relations from Lesley University in Massachusetts.

Professional Development Program Sampler

- Whole child education: multidisciplinary and multicultural arts experience in early learning
- Sensory feast; multidisciplinary and multicultural arts experience for K-5 students
- Inspire creativity, celebrate diversity; multidisciplinary and multicultural arts experience for 6-12 students
- Multidisciplinary and multicultural arts experience for students with disabilities